Report from our June 4, 2020 Meeting

President Robert Husman tried to bring things to order. Some folks just won't stay muted 😊. Tim Ragsdale led the pledge; Larry Hughes offered a prayer.

One guest: Isabella Mendoza from Vanguard Key Club, who is now director of outreach for Division 46.

Board action: The board met Wednesday and approved these contributions:

- $1,000 to Center for Human Services
- $1,250 to Society for Disabilities
- $1,250 to Youth for Christ

Robert said there was a long discussion about what NMK can do as a club to respond to the conflict in our country and community. We will be sending a letter to The Bee explaining what we do and that we avoid politics. Also, board member James Goss suggested that we review the Objects of Kiwanis International, which we did this morning.

Other announcements: The new website isn't yet configured to send out the weekly bulletin by email. You can find it posted each week on the website. Look for "Bulletins"

The Elks Lodge has not reopened but offers drive-by dinners on Fridays. You have to order ahead.

Jeremiah Williams reported that the Fourth of July parade is still a go. No one wants to break our community's impressive record of 147 years with an Independence Day parade. NMK plans to have an entry (see box to the left).

Also, there will be a face mask contest with the parade. For more information on the parade: www.modestojulyparade.com.

Happy Bucks

Loren Suelzle was happy to finally get a haircut last Thursday, although we didn't get to see it since he participates by audio only. He also saw the dermatologist.

Bob Riedel and Eileen bought their ranch 38 years ago and now they are selling it – but remaining in the house. Sounds like a great deal.

Hans Husman finished his graduate program. He now holds a master's degree in social work. Congrats!

John Erro proudly showed off the baby, who was almost smiling until Gary Goodman started singing. Seriously.

Adrian Crane missed last week because he was on another adventure, this time with his son and friends in the Owens Valley area on the east side of the Sierra

James Goss expects delivery next week of his first fishing boat – a 13-foot fishing kayak that was on sale.

From Lori Rosman: The Cal-Nevada-Hawaii District convention is on for Aug. 13-15 at the Nugget Casino Resort in Sparks, Nev.

In our district, the Sonora and Greater Turlock clubs have resumed meetings in person. Most of the other clubs are holding Zoom meetings.
